Metro service only till 7pm today

On Diwali day, metro services will run only till 7pm, against the usual timing of 6.20am to 10pm, the Gujarat Metro Rail Corporation (GMRC) has announced. An official statement said that in view of people bursting firecrackers and its possible effects on the safety and security of passengers, along with the operational safety of the Metro Rail, the services will end at 7 pm on the day of Diwali. The last train will depart at 7pm from each terminal station, including Motera Stadium, APMC, Vastrapur and Thaltej on the East-West as well as North-South corridors. There will be no changes in operations from Motera to Gandhinagar.
