

The Times of India, Page No. - 02.
Date :- 08/01/2026.

PM, German chancellor to attend kite festival on Jan 12

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Pics: Yogesh Chaw

Gandhinagar: Prime Minister Narendra Modi and German chancellor Friedrich Merz will attend the International Kite Festival at the Sabarmati riverfront on Jan 12.

PM Modi is also expected to hold a meeting with Merz in Gandhinagar. The PM will be on a three-day visit to Gujarat from Jan 10. According to official sources, the PM will also travel by metro rail from Ahmedabad to Gandhinagar and inaugurate the metro rail route from

VIBRANT SHOW

Sachivalaya to Mahatma Mandir. "PM Modi and German chancellor Friedrich Merz will visit the International Kite Festival at the Sabarmati riverfront on the morning of Jan 12. According to information available, the PM will then travel by metro rail from the Old High Court junction to Gandhinagar, where he will inaugurate the metro rail stretch from Sachivalaya to Gandhinagar," said a source.

According to official sources, PM Modi and chancellor Merz are expected to meet in Gandhinagar, after which the PM will leave for Delhi.

Sabarmati Riverfront, the venue of the International Kite Festival 2026, is being readied for the annual event. Besides giving the venue a vibrant look, heightened security checks are also being conducted looking at the high-profile visit of PM Narendra Modi and German Chancellor Friedrich Merz

