Prime Minister flags off Metro on Sachivalaya-MMCC stretch

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Prime Minister Narendra Modi inaugurated the Metro rail stretch from Sachivalaya to Mahatma Mandir in Gandhinagar on Sunday evening. Flanked by chief minister Bhupendra Patel, deputy chief minister Harsh Sanghavi and Governor Acharya Devvrat, PM Modi flagged off a Metro train from the Mahatma Mandir station, marking the completion of Phase II of the Ahmedabad-Gandhinagar service. With the opening of this line, Ahmedabad is now connected with the state capital up to Mahatma Mandir Convention Centre (MMCC).

The chief minister and the deputy chief minister, who rode the Metro from the Mahatma Mandir station to Sachivalaya, interacted with passengers and students on board and sought their feedback on the service, an official statement said.
