

The Indian Express, Page No. - 02
Date :- 19/02/2026.

"With more than 48 per cent of the state's population residing in urban areas, the State Government is working with a focused approach to enhance the well-being and livelihood of urban residents and provide better public amenities," Desai said.

Some of the important provisions for the UDD include Rs 16,116 crore for Swarnim Jayanti Mukhyamantri Shaheri Vikas Yojana, an important scheme for urban infrastructure, Rs 2217 crore for Gujarat Metro Rail Projects including Ahmedabad and Surat Metro expansion, Rs 800 crore for external funding for Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation under the Gujarat Resilient Cities Partnership Program and for AUDA area under the Peri-Urban Liveability Improvement Project and Rs 100 crore for developing MICE (Meeting, Incentives, Conferences and Exhibition) infrastructure at Rajkot, Jamnagar, Junagadh and Bhavnagar.