In view of the upcoming IPL matches at the Narendra Modi Stadium, the Gujarat Metro Rail Corporation (GMRC) has announced extended metro services on match days—April 4, 17, 20, 26, 30 and May 3 and 12.

On these days, metro services in Ahmedabad and Gandhinagar will run beyond regular hours till 12:30 am. Currently, metro services operate from 6:20 am to 10 pm in Ahmedabad and from 7:30 am to 7:40 pm on the Motera Stadium–Mahatma Mandir corridor. After 10 pm, special late-night services will be available from Motera Stadium to APMC till 12:30 am, and from Old High Court to Vastral Gam and Thaltej Gam till 12:50 am. Additional services will also run from Motera Stadium to Mahatma Mandir at 11:40 pm and 12:10 am. Passengers will be allowed to board only from Motera Stadium and Sabarmati stations after match hours and can travel to all operational stations.

GMRC has also introduced a special paper ticket priced at Rs 50 for return journeys during extended hours. This ticket will be valid only after 10 pm, while regular tickets and digital modes will be accepted only till that time.
