METRO TRIAL GOES EAST-WEST

Gaurang Joshi

After its trial run on March 29 on the North-South corridor, the Surat Metro conducted another trial run on the East-West corridor on Thursday. As construction work for seven stations on a 6.5km stretch of the corridor has been completed, the run was carried out from Bhesan through Ugat Varigrh, Palanpur Road, LP Savani School, Performing Arts Centre and Adajan. The East-West corridor will have 18 stations between Bhesan and Saroli. The Surat Metro project is being developed at an estimated cost of Rs 12,020 crore and will feature 38 stations across two corridors spanning 40.35km
